Program Description / Statement of Need:

Program Description / Statement of Need: In an effort to provide Physicians/Technologists with current information and data to make informed decisions in their clinical settings, this symposium will cover several topics related to gadolinium-based contrast agent (GBCA) use, including scientific updates related to safety and efficacy, as well as risk-benefit considerations in the selection of a GBCA.

Target Audience:

The content of this CME Symposium is intended for healthcare professionals including Radiologists and Other Physicians, Radiologic and Imaging Nurses, Facility Managers, Researchers, Technologists and Others.

Accreditation and CME/CE Credit Statements:

This CME activity has been planned and implemented in accordance with the Essential Areas and Policies of the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education thru the joint providership of The Institute for Medical Studies (IMS) and Northwest Imaging Forums, Inc. IMS is accredited by the ACCME to provide continuing medical education for physicians. The Institute for Medical Studies designates this live activity for a maximum of 1.5 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

This program has been submitted for approval of .75 hours of Category A CE credit as designated by The Section for Magnetic Resonance Technologists (SMRT) RCEEM. This activity may be available in multiple formats or from different sponsors. ARRT regulations state that an individual may not repeat a live activity for credit if it was reported in the same or any subsequent biennium.

Nurses may claim credit for activities approved for AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™ in most states, for up to 50% of the nursing requirement for recertification. This activity is designated for up to 1.5 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™

Faculty and Planner Disclosures:

As an accredited provider of continuing medical education, it is the policy of The Institute for Medical Studies (IMS) to ensure balance, independence, objectivity, and scientific rigor in all of its live activities. In accordance with this policy, faculty and planners must disclose any financial relationships with commercial interests germane to program content. Additionally, in the event a conflict of interest (COI) does exist, it is the policy of IMS to ensure that the COI is resolved in order to ensure the integrity of the CME activity. The meeting planner has nothing to disclose.
